

1. Test Spoon

| Case  | Expected | Note |
|---|----------|------|
| test the strength of the spoon by pressing              |          |      |
| test spoon is used to eat rice                          |          |      |
| test spoon is dropped from a certain height             |          |      |
| test spoon by hitting it against another object (table) |          |      |
| test spoon put in hot water / cold water                |          |      |
|   |          |      |

2. Test Refrigerator

| Case   | Expected | Note |
|--|----------|------|
| test the temperature control setting is set to the coldest   |          |      |
| test the temperature control setting is set to the hottest   |          |      |
| test setting temperature control set half temperature        |          |      |
| test storage that is put in the refrigerator                 |          |      |
| refrigerator noise test                                      |          |      |
| test with a sudden power failure                             |          |      |
| test the strength of the door, when opening the door quickly |          |      |
| door strength test, when closing the door strong             |          |      |
| refrigerator balance test                                    |          |      |